TUESDAY EVENING, AUGUST 10

DEATH TO THE SHARKS - Lieut, Monroe o the revenue cutter Hamilton has projected a novel mode of taking sharks. Upon a large hook he places a beef liver contained in a net. The book is attrached to a line containing an electrical conquetor attached to a battery on the boat. In the bait he places a vial of powder, which is connected with the conductor; all being ready he pours upon the net and contents a bucket of sheep's blood, and heaves it overboard. The blood mixes with the water, and by its odor or otherwise, aurages the man eaters, and he is not long without a bire. Occe sa isbed that the hook has struck, he ex pledes the powder in the bottle by the battery. and behold the snark appears floating on the surface of the water harmless and useless.

A FLYING MACHINE IN THE AIR, -Two gen tlemen in Louisville assert that on Wednesday evening they saw a man working a flying ma chine high up in the air, and that he came down lower, ascerded, and changed his course in different directors, finally disappearing in the distance. He worked his feet as though he was moving a treadle; his arms seemed to be working to and frombove his head with wings or fans. They could see the delicate outlines of the machin ty, har the of i c. was too high to make out its a xace construction.
